

IN THE NEWS

BY CHRISTINE M. PUSATERI

Emily L. Seymore of Paul, Hastings LLP speaks with The Chicago Bar Association Young Lawyers Section's Public Outreach Committee co-chair, Carl Newman of Fahnert Law LLC, during the YLS Meet the Committees Night on Sept. 24 at the CBA. Guests met YLS leaders and signed up for committees.

Natalie Battaglia

IN THE LAW FIRMS

Rotzel & Andress LPA added Nenad M. Milenkovich to its business services practice group as a partner. Milenkovich focuses his practice on medical device, drug and pharmacy law. He will head the firm's drug and pharmacy practice. He was previously with McDonald, Hopkins LLC.

Lipe, Lyons, Murphy, Nahrstadt & Pontikis Ltd. added Frank Tung as an associate. Tung concentrates his practice on construction, product-liability and insurance coverage matters.

He was previously with the Law Office of Stephen C. Hsu.

McDonald, Hopkins LLC elected Chad J. Richman to the firm's membership. Richman has experience in real estate, finance, transactional and general business matters.

ON THE AIR

Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP partner Steven M. Puiszis will be among the panelists discussing the money woes facing state courts in an Internet radio program at 1 p.m. Tuesday on VoiceAmerica.

The program is titled "Underfunding Crisis in State Judicial Systems." Puiszis serves on the board of directors of the Defense Research Institute and is a past president of the Illinois Association of Defense Trial Counsel.

Others slated to be on the panel are Utah Supreme Court Justice Christine M. Durham, a past president of the Conference of Chief Justices, and Daniel J. Hall, vice president of the Court Consulting Services Division of the National Center for State Courts.

A link to the program may be found at voiceamerica.com.

IN THE LAW SCHOOLS

The Environmental Law Society at The John Marshall Law School will host a program on stormwater management issues and initiatives at 4:45 p.m. Thursday at the law school, 315 S. Plymouth Court.

Guest speakers will discuss trends in protecting water resources. They also will address ways to prevent public and private property damage and how climate change, current regulation and municipal and private homeowner responsibilities can affect the efficacy of stormwater management.

Among the speakers is Brendan G. O'Connor, principal attorney for the Metropolitan Water Reclamation District of Greater Chicago.

A question-and-answer session will follow the presentation. A light dinner will be served and a cocktail reception will follow the presentations.

IN THE NEWS, Page 2

Nenad M. Milenkovich

Frank Tung

Chad J. Richman

Brendan G. O'Connor

TURN INSIDE

AMICUS CURIOUS

Lawyer keeps a big presence on the Internet

PAGE 3

SUPREME COURT

Rules panel hears feedback on ID policies

PAGE 3

“Women who followed her example and kept their names ... became known as ‘Lucy Stoners.’”

LAWYERS' FORUM, PAGE 5

Junli Ye, a 2013 Chicago-Kent College of Law graduate (right), talks to The Chicago Bar Association Young Lawyers Section's Civil Rights Committee co-chair, Yana Karnaukhov, an attorney at the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, during the YLS Meet the Committees Night on Sept. 24 at the CBA. Guests were able to meet YLS leaders and sign up for committees. Natalie Battaglia

The program is free, but registrations are being accepted at eventbrite.com/invites?eid=8398398837.

HONORS

"The Insanity Retrial of Mary Todd Lincoln" has been nominated for a Midwest Emmy by the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.

The 90-minute show, a recreation of Mary Todd Lincoln's insanity trial, was a joint production of the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum and the Illinois Supreme Court Historic Preservation Commission.

The production was taped at the Murphy Memorial Auditorium in Chicago late last year and aired in February.

The production is nominated in the Outstanding Achievement for Informational/Instructional Programming — Program/Special/Series/Feature/Segment category.

The Emmy Awards ceremony is Nov. 3 at the Alhambra Palace in Chicago.

pusateri@lbp.com