

Turn the faucet off while brushing your teeth!

You can help prevent sewer backups by using as little water as possible in your home before and during heavy rainfall. Too much water in the sewers can cause basement backups and overflows to waterways.

Find the Metropolitan Water Reclamation District of Greater Chicago on Facebook and Twitter.